

Sameh Sadik, PhD.

Sameh Sadik serves as the President of Oasis University, INC (OU). As a founding member of OU, Dr. Sadik has an excitement for the education of today's pastors and tomorrow's leaders.

His passion is the education of national and international churches, pastors, and missionaries. Dr. Sadik has worked in Egypt and Mexico equipping and preparing church leadership for ministry.

Dr. Sadik has vast experience in leadership development. He oversees numerous leadership training conferences annually in Egypt and Mexico with more than 1500 pastors and leaders in attendance.

Dr. Sadik has developed extensive courses in Theology, Ministry, Leadership, and Outreach. Born and raised in Egypt, his cultural insights and customs of the Middle East bring illumination to the great need for religious instruction among Christian leaders.

Dr. Sadik's intercontinental experiences have afforded him the opportunity to teach leaders around the world on numerous subjects including leadership development and the Great Commission fulfillment.

Dr. Sadik has authored and published many books in English and Arabic including; "Visionary Leadership," "Is Allah God?" and "The Samaritan Muslim." He has also edited and published over 30 books in Arabic.

Dr. Sadik is an ordained minister with Elim Fellowship and a member of Worldwide Missionary Evangelism. He holds a Ph. D. in Leadership from Logos Graduate School, a post Master Certificate from Regent University, and a Masters of Divinity and Arts in Management from Regent University.

His deepest passion is the education of Christian leaders around the world!

Oasis University, INC.

Ph 513.939.1999
1231 Hicks Blvd
Fairfield, Ohio 45014

info@oasisu.edu